

NAMIBIA INSTITUTE OF ARCHITECTS

Membership fees

Each corporate member active in private practice is considered by the NIA as part of a practice and as per paragraph 5.7 of the NIA Constitution practice levies are due.

Practice levies will be charged per person within the practice involved in the production of architectural drawings or layouts. Administrative staff is excluded in the calculation of the practice levies, however interior designers and or any other people assisting in drawings are.

Of the practice levies, 30% (thirty percent) will be allocated to the NIA bursary fund.
